ADMINISTRATION OF CIA AIR FORCE RESERVE MOBILIZATION DESIGNATION PROGRAM

25X9 1. By Memorandum dated 6 July 1954, subject "Proposed Program for Air Force Reserve Personnel, the Department of the Air Force approved the establishment of an Air Force Reserve Mobilization Designation Program for Air Force Reservist civilian personnel of the Agency. [REDACTED] 25X9
it is understood that an increase will be given consideration when definite Agency mobilization requirements have been determined.

2. For purposes of administration only, these personnel will be assigned to Headquarters United States Air Force (Mobilization Designation Reserve Section - MDRS) for duty with the Office, Secretary of the Air Staff (field extension). Members physically located in the Washington Area will receive inactive duty training with the Composite Reserve Group of the Agency. In the case of personnel located outside the Washington Area and whose status will permit affiliation with a unit, every effort will be made to arrange an inactive duty training attachment to the nearest Reserve unit.

3. The Department of the Air Force has authorized the waiver of minimum participation requirements for personnel who are unable to participate in training for security or other valid reasons. When this waiver is certified by the Agency, such personnel will be retained in the Active Reserve and thus receive the 15 gratuitous points per year as authorized by law. While this will not constitute a satisfactory year of service toward retirement, the points accrued will be included in the computation of "active Federal service" at time of retirement under Public Law 810.

4. Personnel assigned to the Air Force Reserve Mobilization Designation Program will receive active duty training tours on an equal basis with all other Air Force Mobilization Designees. Personnel to fill authorized active duty training quotas will be selected by a board of officers convened within the Agency periodically. Insofar as practicable, Designees will serve active duty training tours with the Department of the Air Force in duties which closely relate to their occupational specialty.

25X1C 5. Air Force Reserve personnel employed by the Agency who are now participating in Reserve activities by assignment to the [REDACTED] will be transferred to the Mobilization Designation Program upon receipt of individual application. There are a number of such personnel within the Agency who apparently are not participating in a Reserve Program. It is probable that the majority are on duty outside the Washington Area or are on overseas assignment. Chiefs of Area Divisions will be requested to disseminate information regarding this program to eligible employees who, in their opinion, can be accepted for assignment without violating security.

However, there are a number of such personnel within the Agency who apparently are not participating in a Reserve program. It is probable that the majority are on duty outside the Washington Area or are on oversea assignments. 25X1C
6. Since it is considered essential that our experienced employees remain with the Agency in case of war or national emergency it is felt that the Reserve activity of Agency Air Force Reserve personnel should be restricted to participation in the Agency Mobilization Designation Program. Therefore, it is requested

25X1A that information regarding this program be disseminated to all eligible personnel on duty with your Division who, in your opinion, can be accepted for assignment without violating security. In this connection, provisions have been made for covert personnel to use [REDACTED] instead of their current mailing address if necessary.

7. Records indicate that those individuals listed on the attached roster, on duty with your division, are eligible for assignment to this program. Application forms are attached in sufficient number for distribution to eligible employees. Since the allocation of funds for active duty training tours to be made by the Department of the Air Force will be based on the number of Reservists assigned to the Mobilization Designation Program it is highly desirable that applications be received at the earliest practicable date.
